

Road to the Resurrection Curriculum Overview

Road to the Resurrection is a series for your Easter weekend (includes two full services). Kids will learn about the true Easter story and be reminded of the fact that we serve a living and powerful God. This Easter series will be great as a stand alone option or used in conjunction with the Are We There Yet curriculum series.

Series Verse: “And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.” (2 Corinthians 5:15 NIV)

Each Week Includes:

- Series verse
- A Takeaway statement
- Large group game
- Skit
- Road Stop Stations (small group stations that include portions of the message, small group discussion, and an activity)
- Small group discussion (included in Road Stop Stations)
- Message (included in Road Stop Stations)
- Small group activities (included in Road Stop Stations)
- 3 small group Easter games
- Review questions
- Take-home card
- Printable service notes

Good Friday Service (optional use on Palm Sunday)

- Bible Story – The Road to the Crucifixion (Matthew 26:26-27:56 NLT)
- Today’s Takeaway – Jesus gave His life for you and me.
- Series Verse – “And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.” (2 Corinthians 5:15 NIV)

Easter Sunday Service

- Bible Story – The Road to the Resurrection (Matthew 27:57-28:20 NLT)
- Today’s Takeaway – Jesus rose again to us new life through Him.
- Series Verse – “And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.” (2 Corinthians 5:15 NIV)