“Catch the Wave” - God’s Power!

The scenes take place on the beach of Adventure Island. Hawaiian style decorations will work great. Beach cabanas, netting with fish, surf-boards, your basic luau items will set the scene. Costumes are easy, bathing suit and Hawaiian shirts, blonde wigs and sun-screen on the nose, sunglasses etc. The more “dude” like the better!

Opening: Surf music should kick it off and then Moon-Doggy and Shredder enter and hop on surfboards and pretend to surf... Performing tricks and stunts, generally hamming it up. Then they get into an argument about who’s wave it is. This turns out to be good natured ribbing in the end as it is revealed that they are good friends and are glad to be reunited at Adventure Island for the summer.

Shredder: Hey man get off of my wave! You totally bogarted my ride man!

Moon-Doggy: You call that a ride, you couldn’t surf the kiddie pool at a water park!

Shredder: Oh yeah, you couldn't surf the white wash in my Jacuzzi!

Moon-Doggy: You wanna make something of it?

Shredder: Yeah!

Moon-Doggy: Yeah! Let's go!

They jump off their surfboards about to go at it and then they relax and high five each other, glad to see one another.

Moon-Doggy: Shredder, what's up man!

Shredder: Moon-doggy! Dude! How's it going bro!

Moon-Doggy: Awesome, it's another summer on Adventure Island!

Shredder: Yeah, man. Surfing up some tasty waves, kicking it on the sand working on my tan, and ice cold prune juice and broccoli smoothies from the juicy juice shack!

Moon-Doggy: Oh yeah, how does that song go again?

Both : (create a little rhyme or song: "The Juicy Juice Song") "Juicy juice, that's the truth, ice cold prune juice keeps you loose!"

Shredder: Dude! Gnarly shark! (Inflatable shark prop or something similar needed) Where did it come from?

Moon-Doggy: I was surfing on the Island of A bug-a-in-my-eye-a and this shark comes up and starts to nibble on my toes. So I turned around and wrestled him to the bottom of the ocean. It was a long and mighty scrap, but I came out victorious, dude, and here is a trophy for the age's man! (Pointing to the shark)

Shredder: Totally tubular, dude. Hey, let's go man, the surf is rising and there's nobody out there. We've got the waves all to ourselves.

Moon-Doggy: Slow down shred-head. It's empty out there, 'cause everyone is doing their quiet time and bible study.

Shredder: Come on man it's Adventure Island. We only come here once a year.

Moon-Doggy: True, but Adventure Island is more than just surf, fun and Juicy-Juice. (They do the song) We come here to learn about the Big Kahuna!

Shredder: Yeah, yeah, whatever man! Look at that barrel.

Moon-Doggy: If you don't start the day out right bro, you'll be surfing life on a wobbly foundation. You've gotta "catch the wave" everyday.

Shredder: I know let's hurry before they shrink.

Moon-Doggy: No dude! The wave! God's power! You know how when you ride a wave it picks you up and power's you to the shore. We need to ride God's wave every day. Use his power to help us do what is right. Listen here in this verse. Matthew 7:24-27 (reads verse aloud from a Bible).

Shredder: You're right, the waves will be there later. After all, He created them. Let's go talk to the Big Kahuna!

The End
