

Jesus is Real Curriculum Overview

- Excellent Production

The Chapel and Second Look Films bring you a four-week, sitcom-style video series featuring the news team from Breaking Action Daily News. This small-town newscast is dead last in the ratings until the skeptical producer, Bentley, orders news anchor Walter Riley to report that Jesus is a fake. With the help of a young boy and a mysterious janitor, Walter's investigative reporting leads him to a pastor, professor, physician, and printer. Each episode sheds new light on the fact that Jesus is real! While this may be "good news" to Walter, it causes lots of tension with the B.A.D. news team.

- Media-Rich, yet still Teacher-Driven

All the videos and multimedia support the teacher's role of engaging today's child with truths from God's Word. The teacher is equipped with powerful multimedia tools not replaced by them.

- Easy!

Teachers can be completely prepped and ready to teach in under an hour. Small Group Leaders need less than 15 minutes to be ready to connect with children and reinforce the lesson.

- Large-Group/Small Group Format

In an innovative format developed at The Chapel, three Age-Appropriate Small Groups are embedded into the Large Group teaching time. Children transition between live teaching, worship, video, and small group segments in a flow that really works with today's children.

- Economical
